NOTICE

Dear Students and Parents,

As we approach the half-yearly examinations, we wish to inform you that while some revisions, including worksheets, class discussions, and tests, will be conducted to reinforce students' understanding, the syllabus will continue to progress as scheduled. Teachers are committed to balancing revision with ongoing syllabus coverage to ensure comprehensive academic preparation. This approach is designed to facilitate smooth academic progression and ensure readiness for final examinations. We encourage students and parents to stay aligned with the Academic Curriculum Plan (ACP) and maintain a progressive mindset. This will help us ensure that all aspects of the syllabus are addressed without disrupting the learning process.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

Sincerely,

Signature of the Principal
