NOTICE

This is to reinforce a fact that academics is not compromised with the preparation of our Grand Carnival. Though we need rigorous hours to make our students presentable on stage, it is not at the cost of teaching-learning. Std III-VIII are in process of their regular scheduled Dance/Music Classes. Hence, we restate that academic part will be unaffected. Besides, we will not force anyone though we are looking for maximum participation.

Please Note: We will list down class wise names of the participants so that we can rehearse with them on the 3rd Saturdays of November and December (offdays for students) on our school campus or last two Sundays (8th and 15th December) at the convenience of our parents with their complete awareness of the participation of their child/ren. Additionally, we have thought of scheduling one day in a week after November Examination for a particular class/es to dedicate for a whole day rehearsal so that the other five days in that week they remain intact with academics.

Mainly, we need an extended cooperation to make things happen. Parents are also requested to take part actively in our Carnival.
